New SCC Pickleball Court a Future Wiffle Sensation

Agate Asphalt's Owner Clayton Hallum, Project Manager Tony Tran, and their entire team meticulously rolled steaming asphalt at the SCC's old fenced tennis court area in early August.

After hearing about our new proposed pickleball project, Tran said Agate wanted to get involved to provide a beautiful four-court playing surface for the Seabeck community. SCC Board Member Frank Marcinko said this local Poulsbo company "bent over backwards to give us a first-rate deal and fit us in to their schedule, giving us playable courts in 2022."

Pickleball aficionado and project instigator Paul Reimer deserves substantial credit for hours of research and footwork, plus soliciting large donations from the Port of Bremerton and others.

Many Seabeckians are waiting to experience the nation's fastest growing sport for the first time!

A hearty thanks for your ongoing project donations — both large and small — which are making this activity a reality at the SCC.

See you on the courts soon!

October 14, 2022's Forum: CKFR / Seabeck's fire services and new station.

Celebrate Children's Day at Final Community Market

Sunday, September 18, 2022, 12 - 4 p.m.

Snap up those flower bouquets, scented soaps, crafted creations, scones, hotdogs, shave ice and more at 2022's final market. And let the youngsters gawk at a real fire truck, visit with a sheriff, talk to Spiderman and exhaust themselves in a bouncy house.

Sean McBrinn & Co. Launch B•I•N•G•O

The Seabeck family triad of local contractor Sean McBrinn and sons Tommy and Sean have teamed up with other BINGO helpers Sondra Anderson, Suzanne Arkless, Becky Soberg and Marla Wilson to orchestrate the July and August BINGO nights. McBrinn's goal was to build a sense of community.

BINGO will resume once the SCC receives its official license from the state, McBrinn explained. As initial investments in supplies and prizes are recouped, other monies can then funnel directly to the SCC.

Volunteer Suzanne Arkless thanked Turie Killoran of Turie's Espresso for the gift of the old-timey popcorn machine.

So stay tuned to SCC's website for future nights out with McBrinn & Co.
