Seabeck Christmas Toy Closet Drop-Off

Donate your gently used toys at the Holiday Arts & Crafts Fair

Last year over 139 families and 513 children received your donated items! Look for the drop-off box by the SCC fair entrance. Check out the Seabeck Christmas Toy Closet on Facebook for toy shopping times on December 16 - 18, 2022, next door at the Seabeck Conference Center.

Pickleball Mania

SCC Treasurer Rick Richert recounts talking to several pickleballers: "Everyone raves about the courts and is very appreciative."

Thank You to Donors

Fundraising efforts continue for the Pickleball Project, including a future covered shelter to the south for a waiting and viewing area.

Donations are also being accepted towards a community garden and a playground.

2nd Season: Seabeck Community Market

The Market Generated Smiles, Vendor Income and Good Cheer

The Seabeck Community Market is fast becoming an iconic destination where residents and visitors mingle on the first and third Sunday afternoons six months of the year, thanks in large part due to the efforts of Marla Wilson and her dedicated team.

The last four markets boasted a faithful 22-plus vendors who appreciated the merry shoppers who $napped up produce, plants, artisan crafts, charcuterie boards, hotdogs, baked goods, shaved ice and more!

2023 Season 3 | Update

Stay tuned at the Seabeck Community Market’s Facebook Page. Wilson said booth prices will remain the same at $10 outside, $15 inside. Twenty-five pound weights on all four outside tent poles will also be required.

More volunteers are needed to become part of the Market Team.

Contact: Organizer Marla Wilson at (707) 372-4167.

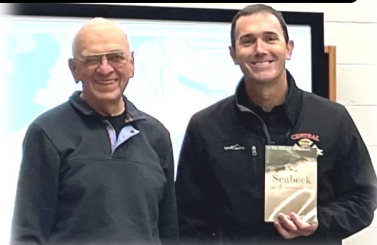

Next Speaker’s Forum: Emergency Preparedness

Mark Your Calendars for 6 p.m., November 16, 2022

Ken Hulet — a volunteer who manages the CERT (Community Emergency Response Team) training for the KCDEM

(Kitsap County Department of Emergency Management) — will talk about preparedness for your home, workplace and auto.

Don Chalupka graciously gifts speakers with the late Fred Just’s book Seabeck and the Surrounding Area.
